Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 19. to Saturday September 23. 1721.

Dublin Caſtle, September 15.

YEſterday the two Houſes of Parliament, purſuant to their ſeveral Reſolutions of the 12th Inſtant, attended his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant, with their reſpective Addreſſes to the King and to his Grace.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to return your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks for your gracious Acceptance of our Expreſſions of Duty and Loyalty in former Seſſions of Parliament, and for the tender Concern your Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſhew for the Welfare of this Kingdom, and your Readineſs to concur with your Parliament in applying ſuch Remedies as may reſtore it to a more flouriſhing Condition.

We likewiſe eſteem it our great Happineſs, that the Endeavours of thoſe entruſted with your Majeſty's Affairs, which, through God's Bleſſing, have hitherto been ſucceſsful in preſerving us from the Peſtilence of a neighbouring Kingdom, have obtained your Royal Approbation.

We cannot but acknowledge, with the greateſt Gratitude, your Majeſty's Goodneſs in leaving it to the Choice of your Parliament to have a Bank in this Kingdom, and do humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the utmoſt Attention, weigh and conſider how far the Eſtabliſhment of one may be beneficial to your People; and whatever Hopes the Diſaffected may conceive from any unhappy Diviſions amongſt our ſelves, we promiſe, by our Conduct and Unanimity, to endeavour to defeat them, and to do every thing that lies in our Power for the Security and ſtrengthening of our moſt excellent Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt; nor ſhall we fail, on our Parts, in any Teſtimony that may Evidence the ſame dutiful Diſpoſitions which we have at all Times manifeſted to your Perſon and Government, or which may contribute to make your Majeſty's Reign eaſy, and your People happy.

And, amongſt the many Inſtances of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs towards us, we beg Leave to expreſs our entire Satisfaction in your Majeſty's again placing over us, as your Lieutenant, his Grace the Duke of Grafton, whoſe perſonal Qualifications and former Conduct have rendered him ſo acceptable and ſo deſireable to this Kingdom.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Will take particular Care that this your loyal and dutiful Addreſs be laid before His Majeſty with all convenient Speed.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, with Hearts truly ſenſible of your conſtant Care and tender Concern for the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom, and particularly for giving us this Opportunity to conſider of the beſt Methods for our Preſervation from the contagious Diſtemper which now rages in ſo dreadful a Manner in a neighbouring Country; and of applying the moſt proper Remedies for reviving our decayed Trade,

Trade, and making us a flouriſhing and happy People.

We acknowledge, with the greateſt Gratitude, your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Royal Favour to us, in directing a Commiſſion to paſs under the Great Seal for receiving voluntary Subſcriptions in order to eſtabliſh a Bank, which we hope, by your Majeſty's gracious Concurrence, and with proper Reſtrictions, may be rendered of general Advantage to the Trade of this Kingdom.

Your Majeſty's great Regard for the Proteſtant Intereſt abroad, and the near View we have of a General Peace, give the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction to all your loyal Subjects, and are intirely owing to your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and unwearied Endeavours for the Peace and Tranquillity of Europe.

We eſteem it a particular Mark of your Majeſty's Favour and Goodneſs that you have been pleaſed to appoint his Grace the Duke of Grafton, our Chief Governour, whoſe ſteady Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our happy Conſtitution, with his conſtant Care for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom, have juſtly endeared him to us.

We are truly ſenſible of the malicious Endeavours of our Enemies to create Animoſities and Diviſions among us; we therefore beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ſtudy to maintain the moſt perfect Unanimity, ſo neceſſary for the Security of our moſt excellent Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, and for ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom.

And as our Happineſs and Security does, under God alone, depend upon your Majeſty and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, we will, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary to ſecure the Peace of the Kingdom, and to ſupport your Majeſty's Government with Honour.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will not fail to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs by the firſt Opportunity, in order to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with more than common Pleaſure take this Opportunity of expreſſing to your Grace, how happy we think our ſelves, and how much we are indebted to the Goodneſs of his Majeſty, that he has been pleaſed again to place your Grace in the chief Government of this Kingdom, where, by the Experience we have already had of your former Adminiſtration, we have all Reaſon to hope, and be convinced, that nothing will be wanting in your Power to put us into a more flouriſhing and happy Condition than at preſent we enjoy; whatever doth or may depend upon us toward this good and deſireable End, we beg Leave to aſſure your Grace ſhall meet with a chearful Concurrence.

We return your Grace our Thanks for the Speech you have been pleaſed to deliver to both Houſes of Parliament from the Throne, and cannot deny our ſelves the Pleaſure of taking Notice how expreſſive the Terms therein are of the Confidence you have in us, and thoſe in ſo engaging a manner, that if any thing could endear your Perſon more to us, it would be this Mark of your good Opinion of us. Nor ought we to omit our Acknowledgments for the Part your Grace has taken in obtaining from his Majeſty (upon the Application of ſeveral conſiderable Perſons of this Kingdom) ſuch a Commiſſion as may terminate in the Erecting of a Bank; if the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall find it of Advantage to the Nation.

The grateful Senſe of what your Grace's noble Father did, and ſuffered, in and for this Kingdom, at the Time of its greateſt Extremity, will always be preſerved by us; and your Conduct in your former Adminiſtration, and ſince your late coming among us, has been ſo good, ſo eaſy, and ſo endearing, and you have at all Times ſo interpoſed your Credit and Intereſt for our Good and Advantage, that though your Grace were not veſted with the Honour of being his Majeſty's Lieutenant, we ſhould however have and expreſs the higheſt Reſpect and Deference for your Perſon.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Give you Thanks for your very kind Addreſs. I will repreſent to his Majeſty your Zeal for his Service, and my beſt Offices ſhall never be wanting to recommend me to the Continuance of your Lordſhips Eſteem.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant-General, and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, do with great Pleaſure and Satisfaction attend your Grace, to return our moſt hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

Your Grace's ſteady Zeal and known Affection for his Majeſty's Service and Government, and the Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe, your faithful Adherence to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, your equal Care of the Prerogative of the Crown, and the juſt Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and your late unwearied and ſucceſsful Endeavours for our Intereſt and Proſperiry, create in us a juſt and grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's great Regard for this Kingdom, in giving us this Opportunity of meeting again under your Grace's wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration, to concert ſuch Meaſures as may yet be neceſſary to render his Majeſty's Reign over us eaſy, and confirm that Happineſs and Security ſo eminently promoted under your former Government.

We are fully convinced of his Majeſty's tender Concern for the Welfare and Happineſs of this Nation, in calling us at this Time together, to conſider of ſuch Methods as may moſt conduce to our Preſervation, and guard us from the diſmal Effects of that contagious Diſtemper which rages with ſuch Violence in a neighbouring Country, and from which we are fully ſatisfied we have been preſerved, under God, by the prudent Care and Vigilance of thoſe intruſted with the Adminiſtration.

The great Decay of Trade occaſioned by the publick Calamities and Misfortunes which have affected the neighbouring Kingdoms, hath reduced this to a very low and impoveriſhed State; but his Majeſty's Goodneſs in being ready to concur with his Parliament in applying ſuch Remedies as may tend to revive it, will, we hope, contribute to make us a flouriſhing People.

We are ſenſible 'twas with this View his Majeſty, by your Grace's Interpoſition, was pleaſed to direct that a Commiſſion ſhould paſs under the Great Seal of this Kingdom for receiving voluntary Subſcriptions in order to eſtabliſh a Bank; and as this was a Matter of a General and National Concern, we cannot ſufficiently admire his Majeſty's great Goodneſs in leaving it to the Wiſdom of his Parliament, to conſider what Advantages the Publick may receive by erecting thereof, and in what manner it may be ſettled ſo as to be beneficial to the Kingdom; and which we aſſure your Grace we will maturely weigh and conſider; and ſhall at all Times expreſs the juſt Senſe we have of your Grace's Favour to us, in contributing your Endeavours to free this Nation from the Poverty we at preſent labour under.

It is with great Pleaſure we have heard from the Throne, that his Majeſty by his unwearied Endeavours, and juſt Influence on the Affairs of Europe, hath given us ſo near a Proſpect of a General Peace, which is a freſh Inſtance of his Majeſty having truly at Heart the Happineſs and Proſperity of his Subjects, and that his and their Intereſt are inſeparable.

His Majeſty's dutiful Commons, in every Seſſions of this Parliament, thought it of abſolute Neceſſity to their own Happineſs, to give ſuch Supplies as were found neceſſary for the Support of his Majeſty's Government with Honour: Our Zeal for his Majeſty's Service continues the ſame: And as we propoſe to our ſelves great Happineſs under your Grace, ſo we faithfully promiſe, That when the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates of the Revenue ſhall be laid before us, we will chearfully grant the neceſſary Supplies, and uſe our beſt Endeavours to render your Adminiſtration eaſy and honourable, and heartily wiſh it may be long.

The Satisfaction your Grace has been pleaſed to expreſs at your being again ſent by his Majeſty into this Kingdom, your kind Acceptance of thoſe Inſtances of our Affection, ſo juſtly due and owing to your Grace, for your great Care of, and ſincere Concern for the true Intereſt of this Kingdom; and your affectionate Aſſurance to promote to the utmoſt of your Power the Publick Good, claim the moſt grateful Acknowledgments his Majeſty's faithful Commons can make to ſo excellent a Governour.

And ſince we cannot give a more effectual Teſtimony of the Honour and Eſteem we have for your Grace, than by paying all imaginable Regard to your Advice, we beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we will endeavour by our Unanimity and Temper to diſappoint the Hopes of the Diſaffected, and ſhall be always ready to agree in ſuch Meaſures as may be expedient for his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of our Country, the Security of the Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Strengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt at Home, and thereby deſerve from your Grace ſuch a Repreſentation of our Proceedings to his Majeſty, as may intitle us to the Continuance of his Royal Favour.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Cannot but with the greateſt Satisfaction receive your very kind Expreſſions of Reſpect and Affection to me. I ſhall employ my utmoſt Care to promote the Good of the Kingdom, by which I hope to merit the Continuance of them.

Paris, Sept. 27. The Duke of St. Simon who is appointed Ambaſſadour to the Court of Spain, has Orders to ſet forward with all Expedition, and 'tis ſaid he will begin his Journey by the 5th of next Month. He will be accompanied by his two Sons and ſeveral Gentlemen of Diſtinction. The Guards which are to attend the Infanta hither, have Orders to march towards the Beginning of December, to the Frontiers of Spain. The Abbot de Varenne, the King's Chaplain, is to attend the Infanta during her Journey: Madamoiſelle de Tallard and Madamoiſelle de Mazarin are named Dames de Palais to that Princeſs. The Marqueſs de Biron has laid down his Employment of Inſpector General of the Infantry; the King has made him a Member of the Council of Regency, and 'tis ſaid he will be ſhortly ſent to Spain with a Commiſſion relating to the Marriage propoſed between the Prince of Aſturias and Madamoiſelle de Montpenſier. The Extract of the Advices which had been received to the 23d Inſtant relating to the Plague, and communicated by this Court to the foreign Miniſters, is as follows.

From M. de Cailus, Sept. the 11th and 14th. There is in the Diſtrict of Avignon, as well at the Village of Bedarides as at the Town of Avignon, a malignant Fever which has carried off ſome Perſons pretty ſuddenly. M. d'Autaune who commands there, writes that it is not a contagious Diſtemper; and has ſent particular Accounts drawn up by Phyſicians certifying the ſame. From M. de Launay commanding on the Line des Baronies, Sept. 11 and 15. M d'Autaune has written to his Son, that he would ſet out on the 16th to inveſt Bedarides; that though the Phyſicians do not agree that the Diſtemper there is contagious, there is ground to fear that Village is infected. As to Avignon, the malignant Fever there has ceaſed theſe 11 Days. A Surgeon of Carpentras ſays in a Letter dated the 10th, that the Diſtemper at Bedarides is palliated, that he ſaw ſeven Perſons ſick there, moſt of whom had Marks of the Plague on them. Another Surgeon writes, that no more than 10 Perſons have died there in two Months, and that the Phyſicians and Servants who tended them, did not fall ſick. From M. d' Argenſon, who commands in the Upper Provence On the firſt Alarms from the Diſtrict of Avignon, he formed a Line which extends from Merindol on the Durance croſs the Mountain of Lebron to Metamis, where it is to be joined by another Line that is to be formed by M. de Belzieu and is to extend above Montjoux and by Beillannette quite to the Rhoſne; by means of which all the Comtat or Diſtrict of Avignon and the Principality of Orange will be blocked up. All the Places formerly infected on the Right of the Durance are in perfect Health, except Cucurron, where now and then the Sickneſs ſtill Appears. From M. le Bret, Sept. 12 and 13. At Aix but 79 Perſons have been under Quarantain, and ſome of them are diſcharged daily; and the Inhabitants are perfuming their Houſes. There has not been any Sick at Arles ſince the 25th of Auguſt. Toulon is wholly free from the Plague, and there are very few Sick in its Territory. Marſeilles has had none dead or ſick for ſeveral Days; thoſe that ſerved in the Hoſpitals are going to perform Quarantain. From the Viſcount de Braune, Sept. 5 and 10. Marvejols continues in a very bad Condition, the Diſtemper has ſpread into ſome of the neighbouring Villages; but the Frontier of Auvergne is guarded in ſuch a Manner, that there is all reaſon to believe it will not penetrate into that Province. From M. de Eury, Intendant in Auvergne, Sept. 13. La Canourgue, Banaſſac, Montferrand, and Serres, are clear of the Plague. St. Leger de Peyre, Valadon, Chapginiez, Villeneuſter, and Vergogneux continue in a bad Condition. From the Duke de Roquelaure, Sept. 15. M. Bailli, Phyſician, has cauſed all the Sick in Marvejols to be put into Infirmaries. They are in Number about 200, of whom he hopes to ſend out 60 well very ſoon, and to recover moſt of the reſt. The Plague is in Moulines, Volherorgues, Vergogneux, Allier, St. Leger, and in ſome other Villages thereabouts. It has not paſſed the Lines, nor the Tarn, nor the Allier, except to the Abbey of Chambon in Vivarais, where are but ſeven Monks and two or three Servants; it is blocked up and is eaſily kept ſo. From the Marſhal Duke of Berwick, Sept. 14 and 17. The Frontier of Rouergue continues well guarded, and all that Country in perfect Health He has publiſhed an Order, forbidding the holding any Fair within the Limits of his Juriſdiction, except for Cattle; and in thoſe Fairs no ſort of Stuffs or other Goods to be vended, on the Penalty of Confiſcation and of exemplary Puniſhment. Three Perſons are dead in the Abbey of Chambon. The State of Health in Mende remains uncertain; it is affirmed they have only common Diſtempers there.

Hague, Sept. 30, N. S. His Excellency the Earl of Cadogan, His Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General, arrived here Yeſterday.

Whitehall, Sept. 22. M. Deſtouches, the French Secretary reſiding here, has by Order from his Court notified to his Majeſty, that at the Deſire of the King of Spain, a Marriage is agreed between the Prince of Aſturias and Mademoiſelle de Montpenſier, Daughter of the Duke Regent.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order his Congé d'Elire to be paſſed the Great Seal, for electing to the Biſhoprick of Durham, vacant by the Death of the Lord Crew, the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. William Talbot Lord Biſhop of Sarum.

The Lord Henry Herbet, eldeſt Son of the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Pembroke, is appointed Captain and Collonel of His Majeſty's firſt Troop of Horſe-Guards.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order Letters Patents to paſs the Great Seal, for conſtituting the Right Honourable James Earl of Berkeley, Sir John Jennings, Kt. John Cockburne and William Chetwynd, Eſqs; Sir John Norris and Sir Charles Wager, Knts. and Daniel Pulteney, Eſq; Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order a Commiſſion to paſs the Great Seal for appointing the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Weſtmorland, John Chetwynd, Eſq; Paul Docminique, Thomas Pelham, Martin Bladen, Edward Aſh, and Richard Plummer, Eſqs; and Sir John Hobart, Bar. to be Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations.

Whitehall, Sept. 16, 1721.

Whereas the King of Spain hath eſtabliſhed certain Regulations, the better to prevent the Contagion which rages rages in France from ſpreading it ſelf into his Dominions, which Regulations the Ships of all Nations trading to Spain are made liable to; His Majeſty is hereby pleaſed to direct, That publick Notice be given thereof to all Merchants and others His Subjects trading to any Part of Spain, and to require, that, in order to prevent any Inconveniences or Loſſes which they may otherwiſe ſuſtain, they do ſtrictly obſerve the following Regulations, viz. That the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon taking Charge of every Ship, do, after clearing, take from the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms a Certificate of the Lading. That each Ship do carry a Bill of Health from the chief Magiſtrates of the Port or Place of Lading. That the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon taking Charge of each Ship, do, at his Arrival in any Port of Spain, declare upon Oath, being there required ſo to do, that the Voyage hath been directly purſued, that no Exchange hath been made of any Goods or Merchandize belonging to, or taken out of other Ships, and that the Ship did not anchor in any ſuſpected Port during her Voyage.
